

Esther's Hope News Bulletin-Volume 2: Issue 6- June 2018

Dear Friend of Esther's Hope Ministries,

Announcing- New Appointment

The Board of Esther's Hope Ministries (EHM) is pleased to announce the appointment of Rahab Wothaya Esiromo, as Program Consultant and Coordinator, Kenya. Rahab joins the EHM team with a passion to serve Jesus Christ and with many years of solid leadership experience.

Rahab will coordinate all EHM activities in Kenya, including overall program design and execution. This will include communication between EHM and the partner schools, as well as between the sponsors and their sponsored student(s).

Rahab states: "I am a born-again Christian, and married mother of three, with a desire to see people transformed by the Word of God as they apply it in their lives."

You can change the life of a girl in Africa:
Send her to High School for $420.00 per year (or $35.00 per month). To learn more visit-esthershopeministries.net or call 616.635.7993 to speak with us.

I studied business administration and human resource management at university, and worked for over fifteen years at different organizations. At the last three organizations I served at senior level as operations, administration and human resource manager.

Currently I am a stay-at-home mother, and I serve God as a volunteer at my local church, Christ Is the Answer Ministries (CITAM-Ngong) in the music and bible study ministries (I lead a small group). I also serve as a group leader in Bible Study Fellowship (BSF)."

We welcome Rahab to the EHM family and look forward to working closely with her in serving underprivileged young women in Kenya and beyond.
